2. Reading text

Helping Our Community

A community support group wants to improve the local health centre. The centre needs new chairs, medical equipment and a better water supply. The group decides to organize a fundraising activity. Volunteers sell food, collect donations and ask local people to support the project. Some community members give money, while others provide materials or help with the organization. At the end of the activity, the group raises enough money to buy some equipment and improve the water service. The project shows that people can work together to acquire important resources and services for their community.

3. Understanding the text

When reading, look for the following information:

- WHO? → Who is involved?
- WHAT? → What activity is organized?
- WHY? → Why is money needed?
- HOW? → How do people help?
- RESULT? → What does the community obtain?

4. Main idea

The main idea is the most important message of the text. In this text, the community works together through fundraising and support activities to obtain useful resources and improve services.

5. Important details

- The support group wants to improve the local health centre.
- The health centre needs chairs, medical equipment and a better water supply.
- Volunteers sell food and collect donations.
- Community members can contribute money, materials or their time.
- The money raised helps the community acquire resources and improve a service.

6. Reading strategy

READ THE TITLE → IDENTIFY THE MAIN IDEA → FIND WHO / WHAT / WHY / HOW → LOCATE KEY DETAILS → IDENTIFY THE RESULT

7. Comprehension practice

1. What does the support group want to improve?
2. Why does the group organize a fundraising activity?
3. Give two ways volunteers help.
4. What can community members contribute apart from money?
5. What does the group achieve at the end?

8. True or false

1. The community wants to improve a health centre. _____
2. Only rich people can participate in the fundraising activity. _____
3. Volunteers collect donations. _____
4. The project helps improve community resources and services. _____

Remember

FUNDRAISING + DONATIONS + VOLUNTEERS + COMMUNITY SUPPORT → RESOURCES / SERVICES FOR THE COMMUNITY
